Mission of the Week

Adventure Kids Camps (Formerly CCI Fiji) just finished 2 weeks straight of hosting camps. Camps are hosted two weeks at a time, three times a year so this would have been our second time hosting camps in 2019. These past two weeks saw our team go from village to village, island to island using the DVBS materials and working with local communities and churches to reach children.

Pray for a good week of rest as our staff regain their strength and prepare for the cane harvesting season, the birth of a new baby and prepare for more camps in November/December when we go to Fiji. Because of the demand from local churches, we will also be doing weekend camps.

Pray for the harvest here at the Whitewater Fiji land and farmers who not only faithfully, but joyfully, have been taking care of the Fiji land.

Thank you from Chad and Patricia
